Write the child's name as you want it to appear in the passport. If this name is different from the name on the child's documentary evidence of citizenship, the child's legal change of name document (original document from issuing authority) may be required. Additional documents may be requested to verify the child's identity.

SURNAME (LAST NAME) AT BIRTH/FORMER SURNAME (FORMER LAST NAME)

Complete only if different from the surname (last name) to appear in the passport (for Passport Canada information only—will not appear in the passport).

PLACE OF BIRTH

The place of birth must be provided on the application form. If you do not wish the place of birth to appear in the passport, submit a written request. Be sure to contact the consulate or embassy of every country you plan to visit to ensure that the child will be admitted if the passport does not include the place of birth.

SIGNATURE

Children 11 years of age or over MUST sign their usual signature. The child's signature in Section 1 will appear in the passport. Therefore, the signature MUST NOT exceed the inner limits of the signature box.

M

Information on Applicant

Both parents are requested to participate in obtaining passport services for their child and to sign the application form. The other parent may be contacted. To avoid possible delays, we strongly recommend that you provide a long-form birth certificate showing information on both parents. Where a legal guardian is the applicant, the other legal guardian as the case may be is also requested to participate.

CUSTODY, SEPARATION AND DIVORCE

Where a court order or agreement exists referring to custody of the child, only the person with custodial rights may apply. All documents that refer to custody or mobility of, or access to, the child must be provided. If a divorce has been granted, a copy of the divorce judgement or order must also be provided. Where joint custody provisions exist, either parent may apply.

RELATIONSHIP WITH OTHER PARENT

Indicate your current relationship with the other parent: single, common law, married, separated, divorced, widowed. Indicate date of marriage to the other parent, if applicable. Additional information or documentation may be requested.

For further information, contact Passport Canada.

CHILDREN IN FOSTER CARE AND UNDERGOING AN ADOPTION PROCESS IN CANADA

For more information, please see the "Information and documents required" section on the PPTC 463 form and click on the "Children in foster care or in the process of adoption" link on the "Forms" page of the Passport Canada website at www.passportcanada.gc.ca.

N

Previous Canadian Travel Document

- Enclose any valid Canadian passport, certificate of identity or refugee travel document issued to the child. If the child's current passport expires more than 12 months from the date of submission of the application, provide a written explanation as to why you are applying at this time. Should Passport Canada not be satisfied that you have a valid reason for applying early, your application for a new passport may be refused.
- If the valid passport has been lost, stolen, damaged, destroyed or is inaccessible, complete a "Statutory Declaration" form PPTC 203, available from any Passport Canada regional office in Canada, any Canadian government office in the USA or at www.passportcanada.gc.ca. A Canadian passport, once reported lost or stolen, is no longer valid and is not to be used for any travel.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION CONCERNING CHILDREN TRAVELLING ABROAD

Travelling with Children or Children Travelling Alone

Immigration authorities in most countries are becoming increasingly vigilant when children are crossing international borders. Whether travelling alone or accompanied by an adult, each child travelling abroad must have a valid passport and may also require supporting documentation. Prior to any travel that includes a child, you should contact the embassy or consulate of all countries the child will be visiting to inquire about entry requirements.

Documentation to Facilitate Travel Abroad

The following documents may be required to support the entry of a child to another country:

- Birth certificate showing the names of both parents
- Documents pertaining to custody
- If the child is travelling with one parent, a letter signed and dated from the other parent authorizing travel (letter may have to be notarized)
- If the child is travelling with someone other than the parent, a letter signed and dated from both parents authorizing travel with that person (letter may have to be notarized)
- If the child is travelling alone, a letter signed and dated from both parents authorizing travel (letter may have to be notarized)
- If one of the parents is deceased, the death certificate

Documentation and Tips to Facilitate the Return to Canada

The following tips may help to avoid delays when a child is returning to Canada:

- Always carry proper identification for yourself and the child—passport, birth certificate, Canadian citizenship card, Record of Landing (IMM 1000), permanent resident card or Indian Status Card.
- If you have custody of the child, carry copies of documents specifying custody rights of the child with you.
- If you are not the legal guardian of the child, carry a letter of permission or authorization for you to have custody when entering Canada. When a parent is travelling alone with a child, a letter from the other parent can also facilitate the return of both the parent and the child. The letter should also contain telephone numbers where the parent or legal guardian can be contacted.
- If you are travelling as part of a group, ensure you are in the same vehicle as the child you are accompanying when arriving at a border crossing.
- Have the child memorize your home and/or office telephone number and teach him or her to call you in an emergency.

Custody Information

1. Custody arrangements in Canada may not be recognized in another country. In extreme cases, the child may not be able to leave the country visited. It is recommended that, before leaving on a trip, you check with the embassy or consulate of the country or countries the child will be visiting to determine what documentation may be required relating to the custody of the child. For further information, contact:

Foreign Affairs and International Trade Canada:

In Canada 1-800-387-3124

Outside Canada 613-943-1055

2. If a custody dispute could possibly arise while travelling with the child, you should talk to a Canadian lawyer prior to your departure. We suggest you also read the publication International Child Abductions: A Manual for Parents.

For a free copy, call:

In Canada 1-800-267-8376

Protection of Information

All personal information provided on this application form is protected and will be used in accordance with the provisions of the Privacy Act (Personal Information Bank No. FAI PPU 030). The personal information is collected under the Canadian Passport Order, to determine the current and ongoing entitlement of the child to a Canadian passport, to administer passport services and to provide information to the Consular Affairs Bureau of Foreign Affairs and International Trade Canada in the event that the child requires assistance while travelling abroad. The guarantor's personal information is also verified to determine whether that person meets the guarantor requirements. All information provided, including information regarding the parents, is subject to routine verifications and security queries. To strengthen the security of the Canadian passport, Passport Canada uses facial recognition technology to convert the child's photo into a biometric template for comparison with the Passport Canada database of photos. The photo is then incorporated into the passport as a digital image. Biometric templates are retained for a maximum of 12 years.

Passport Canada uses the services of third parties to receive passport applications submitted in person. Third parties ensure that all personal information is protected and used in accordance with the provisions of the Privacy Act.

Passport Canada may contact the applicant or passport holder to solicit feedback about passport services.
