Please ensure you submit all the relevant original documents that you want the Entry Clearance Officer to see when considering your application. The UK Immigration Rules make it clear that it is your responsibility to satisfy the Entry Clearance Officer that you are genuinely seeking entry to the UK for the purpose and duration that you have stated. Submission of particular documents does not guarantee that your visa will be issued. It is your decision how you satisfy the Entry Clearance Officer that your intentions are as you state in your application. It is your choice which documents you submit. Further guidance on supporting documents can be found on the UKBA web pages.

Your photograph must be:

- Colour
- Passport style and size (45mm high x 35mm wide)
- A recent and true likeness, showing full face, with no hat, helmet or sunglasses, although you can wear everyday glasses
- Original - that is not digitally or optically altered (for example it must not be 'photoshopped' or 'touched-up')
- Taken against an off-white, cream or light grey background so that your features are clearly distinguishable against the background
- Printed on low-gloss, plain-white photo-quality paper (with no watermarks or embossing)

Photographs that do not conform to these standards will be rejected and may cause a delay in processing your application.

Advisory:

"To know your Customs obligations when travelling to the UK, please consult Notice 1, found at www.hmrc.gov.uk.

8.1.3 Are you exempt from the English language requirement? Exemptions are:

- Being a national of a majority English speaking country. Nationals of Antigua and Barbuda; Australia; the Bahamas; Barbados; Belize; Canada; Dominica; Grenada; Guyana; Jamaica; New Zealand; St Kitts and Nevis; St Lucia; St Vincent and the Grenadines; Trinidad and Tobago; United States of America are exempt from the English language requirement. The evidence required to show that you are a national of a majority English speaking country is proof of your nationality such your passport. N.B. this exemption relates to nationality / citizenship, not residency – for example, holding a US 'green card' would not exempt you.
- Holding a degree taught in English. If you have a degree (to the equivalent of at least a bachelor's degree) that was taught in or researched in English, you are exempt from the English language requirement. You should provide evidence to show that your degree was taught in English, for example a copy of the degree certificate.
- Being aged 65 and over. If you are over 65 years of age at the date of application, you are exempt from the English language requirement. The evidence required to show that you are over 65 years old is proof of your age, such as that recorded in your passport.
- Having a physical or mental impairment which would prevent you from learning English and/or taking a test. This is not a blanket exemption for everyone who has a disability. You must be either suffering from a long-term illness or disability that severely restricts mobility and your ability to attend language classes; or, have a mental impairment which means that you are unable to learn another language. You should provide satisfactory medical evidence of your illness or disability.
- Exceptional compassionate circumstances. For example: where there has been a humanitarian disaster; where a test centre is not available in a particular country; those who have been hospitalised for several months immediately prior to applying for entry clearance. You should provide evidence to support your statement.

8.1.4 Please provide details of how you meet the English language requirement.

You should provide an original English language test certificate in speaking and listening from an English language test provider approved by the Secretary of State for these purposes, which clearly shows your name and the qualification obtained (which must meet or exceed level A1 of the Common European Framework of Reference).
