GRIEVANCE POLICY

If you have a problem or complaint

- All BUELI staff can be approached if you have any problems.
- Speak to your Class Teacher or Senior Teacher. They will listen to your concerns in complete confidence and will help you, or find someone who can help.
- The Director of Studies can help you if you feel you cannot discuss the matter with your teacher, or you feel your teacher cannot help. Go to the office and make an appointment to see the Director of Studies or one of the student administrative staff. It is often good to bring a friend with you at times like this, to help explain your problems or complaints, and to hear what the Director of Studies has to say.
- Any very serious problems which cannot be solved within BUELI should be reported to the Pro Vice Chancellor (PVC) Students and Academic Support who can act with the authority of the University in these matters. Remember that your HOMESTAY FAMILY can help you a lot with problems. Homestay families have been selected because they are sympathetic to the problems that overseas students face. If you have a problem with your homestay family, see Reception.

Who do I talk to?

Background

Sometimes a student may face problems with study or personal matters. A student may feel that he or she wants to complain about problems with a particular staff member, or about the course. Students may feel that the class they are enrolled in is not the right one for them.

If you feel that there are things like that, or anything else, that we can help you with, please speak up, and we will do all we can to help. Grievances will always be settled in a timely and professional manner.

Policy intent

In the interests of fair and equitable treatment of complainants, BUELI has implemented a policy which provides for the review of decisions. Complainants who are dissatisfied with a decision affecting them, for example the grade received in a subject, can have that decision formally reviewed.

Procedure

If you have problems or complaints, this is what you should do:

The complainant should first approach the decision maker to discuss the decision. If they are dissatisfied with the outcome of that discussion, they should approach the Director of Studies.

The Director of Studies will make every effort to resolve the issue. If the complainant is dissatisfied with the decision of the Director of Studies, they may speak to the Director of Bond College and BUELI.

The Director will make every effort to resolve the issue. If the complainant is dissatisfied with the decision of the Director, students should contact the Pro Vice Chancellor (PVC) Students and Academic Support.

If the student does not get satisfaction at that level, they have the right to take their complaint to the student ombudsman, who is an independent arbiter, not an employee of the university. University Ombudsman, Mr Lauchlan Chipman. Email: lchipman@bigpond.net.au

If the student is dissatisfied with the decision of the student ombudsman, they may refer the matter to the Queensland Office of Fair trading. Procedures for lodging a complaint with the Office are detailed on the Queensland government website www.consumer.qld.gov.au/

At all times students are encouraged to present their case in a calm, courteous and reasonable manner. Students are similarly urged to follow the steps in this procedure. Higher levels of appeal will not review the decision if the correct channels have not been adhered to.
