2011-2012 APPLICATION FOR FINANCIAL AID — DEADLINE: MARCH 1, 2011

All financial aid applicants must complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) no later than March 1, 2011. Complete the FAFSA online at <http://www.fafsa.gov>. Please include school code 003329 when completing your FAFSA.

In order to be considered for Penn State Law Need-Based Grants, you must also submit this Penn State Law Financial Aid Application. If you are younger than 30 years old and do not have dependants other than a spouse, you will not be considered for need-based grant funding unless you report parent information on the FAFSA. Please direct any questions about this policy to the Law Financial Aid Office.

You may at a later time be asked to provide documentation of the information provided on these aid applications.

SECTION IV

I certify that the information provided on this application and in any related material is true and complete. I understand that any misrepresentation may result in the denial or cancellation of financial aid. I accept responsibility to promptly inform Penn State Law in writing of any change in the information that I have provided on this application. I understand that Penn State Law need-based grant recipients will be expected to borrow the maximum Federal Stafford Loan eligibility. I understand that if I am enrolled in a joint degree program, I will not be eligible for need-based grants for years that I am not taking primarily law courses. I agree to allow Penn State Law to publicly identify me as the recipient of any endowed scholarships I may receive.
