

Institute on Religion and Democracy

Internship Application Form

The IRD is an ecumenical alliance of U.S. Christians working to reform their churches' social witness, in accord with biblical and historic Christian teachings, and to contribute to the renewal of democratic society at home and abroad.

The Institute on Religion and Democracy has internship opportunities available year round. Interns will have the opportunity to do substantial work, including writing, research, website upkeep, and social media, among other tasks.

Please fill out the form below and include your résumé, cover letter, transcript, and a writing sample. (Writing sample should be 2-5 pages)

Please submit your application to:

Institute on Religion and Democracy
